The Healthy Longevity Research Center and the School of Public Health invite you to attend a joint seminar

Measuring cognitive functioning among older US adults: the REGARDS Study

Prof. Leslie McClure

Leslie McClure is Professor & Chair of the Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics and Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs at the Dornsife School of Public Health at Drexel University. Dr. McClure does work to try to understand disparities in health, particularly racial and geographic disparities, and the role that the environment plays in them. Her methodological expertise is in the design and analysis of multicenter trials, as well as issues of multiplicity in clinical trials. She has led several different coordinating centers for both large epidemiologic studies and for clinical trials. In addition to her research, Dr. McClure is passionate about increasing diversity in the math sciences and devotes considerable time to mentoring younger scientists.
